

CANAP

Chattanooga Area Nurses in Advanced Practice

CANAP is committed to support and foster the role of the Advanced Practice Nurse in and around the Chattanooga, TN area.

- 1) Ensure safe care
- 2) Provide continuing education
- 3) Support legislation
- 4) Assist APNs to find employment

You are invited..

If you are a Nurse Practitioner, Nurse Practitioner student, or other licensed Advanced Practice Nurse (ie Midwife, Clinical Nurse Specialist, Nurse Anesthetist), we would like to invite you to our next dinner meeting (1st time guest - free of charge). Just go to canap.org and RSVP. Usually our meetings are held at a restaurant in and around Chattanooga on the third Tuesday of the month. Learn more: CANAP.org

How to join

- 1) Fill out the application printed off the website.
- 2) Pay by pay pal on website or by check payable to CANAP.
- 3) Bring application/dues to next meeting or mail to treasure listed on application.

* Our application lists annual membership dues and the 'Home' section on the website lists new membership prorated discount when joining after April.

check out our new website www.canap.org

Membership offers

- Free monthly dinner meetings with special guests. (Sometimes other meetings posted on website calendar.)
- Voting rights for CANAP business.
- Access to members-only content on the canap.org website: discussion forum, on-line member/preceptor directories, newsletters, employment, bylaws, and polls/voting at times.
- Sizable scholarship for two students per year.
- Group involvement with TNA and AANP; individual membership encouraged but not required.
- Networking with other Advanced Practice Nurses.
- Membership Directory
- Monthly newsletter emailed to your preferred email.

Employers—find an NP

You don't have to be a member to take advantage of placing an ad for finding an NP. If you are a local employer interested in hiring a Nurse Practitioner we can post your ad for free in our password-protected members-only area on our website. Interested? E-mail your ad to current President, Zoe Scott, at zoe.scott@canap.org. Also, read the 'About' section on our website.